William[1] Frame and his wife Susannah were in Pennsylvania before going to Augusta County, Virginia, about 1740. There are several "William Frames" included in the lists of tax-payers, etc. in the Pennsylvania Archives and mentioned in the Pennsylvania histories. William is such a common name for the Frames to use that it is exceedingly difficult to determine which one is which!!!

1546589

There are many Frames in Pennsylvania. Some are connected with William Penn's Family as his daughter Margaret married Thomas Frame. The first will filed in Philadelphia was by a Frame. Some of the Frames are Quakers and they all seem to be religious people. Some of the Frames claim they are French with the name originally being "Framette".

William[1] Frame entered 300 acres in Augusta County, Virginia, on the south brank of North River of the Shenandoah, called Naked Creek August 20, 1748. Book 26, p 559 Land Office Records, Richmond State Library.

"Head waters of Naked Creek begin about one mile north of Augusta Stone Presbyterian Church, Fort Defiance, Virginia. The streams converge in a westerly direction and the main stream becomes for a short distance, before entering North River, the Augusta-Rockingham County line. The mouth of the stream on North River is approximately one mile west of the village of Burktown on U. S. Highway #11, which is 14 miles north of Staunton." Records of Augusta County, Va., Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish Settlement in Va. by Lyman Chalkley, Vol. 3, p 567n (Sale by Jeremiah of his father's land.)

William[1] Frame signed papers on May 15, 1781, so he died between that time and May 3, 1783, the date on which Jeremiah sold the land. (Vol 3, p 159 Chalkley's). It is believed that William had a will but it is not filed in Augusta County, Virginia. They had all removed to Kentucky where through the mismanagement of the land grants, the Frames lost the land which they had homesteaded. There was a law-suit and Susannah was a witness but this was to no avail. The Frames joined a wagon-train and went up into Ohio. It is not known where William[1] Frame is buried.

A Mrs. Whitley, who lives in Paris, Kentucky, and who has written articles for the Kentucky Register of a historical nature and who claims Frame Ancestry, wrote a 42nd cousin of mine that:- William[1] Frame died in 1781 in Augusta County, Virginia, and that Susannah was in Kentucky in 1789 as her name was in the tax rolls. The law suit was in 1818 so Susannah was living then. Jeremiah's[2] brothers, William and John, went to Kentucky when he did and they all visited their sister, Elizabeth[2] Frame who married James Morrow in Clark County, Kentucky in 1775.

See Page 1 re William[1] Frame ----from Vol. III p 567 Chalkley's "Deed Book No. 24 p 45, 3rd May 1783, Jeremiah Frame - son and heir-at-law of William Frame, deceased, to Thomas Graham. Delivered: James Graham, son of Thomas 14 April, 1787."

This entry in the Augusta County Records, proves without a doubt that Jeremiah[2] was the son of William[1] Frame.

William[1] and Susannah Frame were members of the Old Augusta Stone Church and at least Esther[2], Jennet[2] and Elizabeth[2], daughters of the couple were baptized in the church by the Reverend John Craig who was pastor of the church for 30 years. Both The Tinkling Spring, Headwaters of Freedom 1732-1952 and the Maxwell History & Genealogy prove this and the Maxwell volume has a picture of the Old Augusta Stone Church on page 247.

William[1] Frame and Susannah had the following children:

Esther[2] Frame	Bapt. Mar. 23, 1746
Jennet[2] Frame	Bapt. July 19, 1747
Elizabeth[2] Frame	Bapt. July 2, 1749 m James Morrow
Jeremiah[2] Frame	B July 16, 1752 m Elizabeth McGill

and probably:
William[2] Frame
John[2] Frame and possibly others

A Mrs. Olson, of POB 76004, Los Angeles, California, gave the following list of children for William and Susannah Frame to Mrs. Lee Betz of RFD 4, Box 56, Valparaiso, Indiana, 46383:

William Frame	Bapt. 1749 d y
Col. William Frame	b 1760-70 in Clark & Montgomery County, Kentucky in 1835
Elizabeth Frame	Bapt. July 2, 1749 m James Morrow Lived Clark County, Kentucky
John Frame	b 1756 Virginia m. 1st Nancy ____ Patented 499½ acres in Montgomery County, Kentucky
Esther Frame	b 1746
Jennet Frame	b 1747

To date (1969) I have no proof that William[1] Frame and Susannah had two different children born by the name of William, nor Have I any proof that they had a son John. Tradition says that William and Susannah had a large family.

Mrs. Rachel Rolfe Feighny wrote to Mr. Robert D. Craig, the author of this record, and called his attention to the error. She also asked for any information he might have on the family. No reply.

Abner Dooley married in Huntington, Indiana, and died in Iroquois, Illinois, according to his grandniece, Mrs. Edith Frame Armstrong of Arcadia, Kansas. Vol. 25 1850 Census made on August 4, Pike Township, Warren Co., Indiana
1870 Kansas Census Washington Township, Crawford Co. p 10 & p 18 of 1875 Kansas Census

The 1875 Census gives the family a little differently and even Mrs. Armstrong commented on the differences but it must be the same Mark[5] Frame as he is listed as being 42 years of age, born in Indiana and he came from Illinois to Kansas. There is a Sarah Frame listed as being 21 years of age, born in Missouri and she came from Missouri to Kansas. Could this be Mark's second wife ? The others listed are :

William[3] Frame (Jeremiah[2], William[1] Frame) was born February 10, 1782, Bourbon County, Kentucky. He married Margaret Jarrett (Peggy) March 29, 1803. The record is on file at the Bourbon County Court House at Paris, Kentucky, and a copy may be obtained for a fee.

William[3] Frame was a taxpayer in Preble County, Ohio, in 1824 and 1828. It is believed he went to Porter County, Indiana sometime in the early 1830's.*

William[3] died September 27, 1839, aged 57 years, 7 months and 17 days (Gravestone Record) in Porter County, Indiana. His widow died January 20, 1848, aged 70 years and two days (Gravestone Record) in Porter County, Indiana. They are buried in a private cemetery on a farm once owned by the Frames. The stones are right near the road, probably on the RFD route out of Crown Point. The stone for William and Margaret is one large one, probably 4'-5' high and several feet across.

There are several Williams with military service, etc. in Kentucky and it is just almost impossible to tell which is which. There were three first cousins, all named William and all about the same age in Kentucky at the same time.

Margaret Jarrett was born January 18, 1778, and there is some reason to believe that she was born in Wales.

The first Petit Jury of the First Circuit Court included a William Frame, (It is assumed that this person is William (3) Frame but it probably could be verified at the Court House.) The Court was held at the home of John Saylor, October 17, 1836. It did not adjourn until April. NB This is the only Frame serving in the War of 1812 from Ohio (I should say the only William Frame) so I am advised by the National Archives in Washington, D.C. Now, whether it is Jeremiah's son, or grandson, or one of the many cousins named William is not known. Jeremiah's son would have been 40 years' old in 1812 so it might easily be some other William. Page 36 --"The year of 1834 witnessed a large immigration. In this year occurred the birth of the first white child in the County - Reason Bell -- son of Reason Bell, Sr., who had settled in Washington Township the preceding year. Just a month later was born Hannah, daughter of Jesse Morgan, in Westchester township. Early in the year came J.P. Ballard, who built the first house in the city of Valparaiso, or rather upon the site of the present city. A. K. Paine built the first dwelling and took up the first claim in what is now Jackson township; Thomas and William Gosset selected claims in Westchester township; William Thomas, Sr., Jacob Beck, John Hageman, John I. Foster, William Frame and Pressley Warnock brought their families and established homes in the same township; in Washington township Jacob Coleman, James Blair, Isaac Werninger, Ruel Starr and James Baun were added to the population; Joseph Bartholmew, Henry Adams, George, Jocob and John Schultz, and Benjamin Spencer settled in Morgan Township. In June Owen Crumpacker came from Union County, Indiana, and was probably the first settler in Liberty Township. He was soon joined there by William Downing, Jerry Todhunter, Elijah Casteel, Peter Ritter and Thomas Clark, generally referred to as "Beehunter" Clark."

Page 185-6 "It was in Westchester township that the first white settler in Porter County built his cabin. In 1822 Joseph Baily located on the Calumet River, at the place later known as Baily Town. A more complete account of Mr. Baily and his frontier post will be found in Chapter III. In 1833 Jesse morgan came with his family and settled in what is now Westchester. His daughter Hannah born February, 1834, was the first white child born in the township. In 1835 William Thomas, Sr., William Gosset, Jacob Beck, John Hageman, John Foster, William Frame and (page186) Pressley Warnick brought their families and located in Westchester. Some of these men settled in territory afterward added to other townships and their names appear as pioneers therein. Other early settlers were Eli Hendricks, Elhanan Ranks, William Coleman, Alfred Marvin, two men named Abbott and McCoy, and a mulatto named Landy Gavin, who had purchased his freedom from slvery. The first death in the township was a son of Joseph Baily in 1827, and the first marriage was that of Esther Baily to Col. John H. Wistler, who came from Detroit in 1803 and erected old Fort Dearborn near the mouth of the Chicago river. Their marriage occurred in Chicago, but they later became residents of the township. The second marriage was between Samuel Thomas and Lucille Hale."

In Porter County, Indiana, WILL BOOK A pg 165-6 there is a will dated September 9, 1858, for Newton Frame. This will was probated Septem ber 29, 1858, so Newton must have died during the month of September in 1858. The will named his wife Elizabeth and the following children:

William	Margaret
Daniel	Lucinda
Warren	Rachel
Lew is Cass
Malphus P.
Thomas John

Although the names of the children do not agree altogether with the names listed in the 1850 census as given at the top of this page, we feel that these Newtons are one and the same man. The widow, Elizabeth, then married her brother-in-law William[4] Frame as his second wife on March 12, 1878.

In the 1840 Indiana Census Newton had two males in the 5-10 years group, one feamel under 5 years, one female in the 5-10 years group and one in the 10-15 year group. In the 1830 Census of Preble County, Ohio, Newton had only one child, a female under 5 years of age.

In the Porter County marriages, Malphus P.[5] Frame is listed as marrying Anna Thatcher June 28, 1869. She was born 1853 and died in 1941. He was born in 1850 (probably after the 1850 Census was made) and died in 1908. They are buried in the Ludington Cemetery, Porter County, Indiana.

Also, in the Porter County Marriage Records we find a Lewis[5] Frame who married Catherine Throp May 3, 1876.

When the 1860 Census for Porter County is examined, perhaps some of the questions regarding this family will be solved.

"William Frame was born in Bourbon County, Ky., in 1812, son of William and Margarette (Jerrette) Frame, natives of Virginia, and pioneers of Kentucky. In 1822, the parents moved from the latter State to Preble County, Ohio, and there our subject was educated in the common schools and reared until 1834, when he came to this township, where for the first two years he worked in William Gosset's saw and grist mills. He then entered eighty acres of land, and bought eighty acres additional, built a log cabin and in 1839 married Miss Jane McCaryhan, daughter of Thomas McCaryhan. This lady bore her husband twelve children -- Newton (deceased), Elizabeth, Thomas J., John L., Sarah Jane, James (deceased), Rosa A., Mary M., William A., Melinda, Presley and Newton. The mother of this family died January 21, 1877, and in March 1878, Mr. Frame married Elizabeth Frame, daughter of Francis Peak, and widow of a deceased brother. Two sons --Thomas and John -- enlisted in the Indiana Volunteer Infantry during the late war, and in 1865 John died of quick consumption. Thomas passed through all his campaigning unscathed, and is now residing in thefar West. Mr. Frame is member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in polictics is a Republican. He is still in robust health and is able to perform as good a day's work on the farm as that of any of his younger competitors. He is a leading citizen, and is held in high esteem by his neighbors."

"Thomas Frame"

Thomas Frame, deceased, belonged to one of the pioneer families of Porter County, Indiana, and here he was born, reared, passed his days and died, the span of his life being from April, 1843, to November, 1908.

Mr. Frame was a son of William and Jane (McCarahan) Frame, the former a native of Kentucky and the latter of Ireland, and one of a family of eleven children, namely: Newton, James, Elizabeth, Thomas J., John, Sarah, Presley, Rosa, Matilda, William and Newton, the first Newton having died in infancy. In 1865, at the age of twenty-two years, Thomas J. Frame took to himself a wife in the person of Ann E. Cadwell, the daughter of a neighboring pioneer, and the young couple began their wedded life on a forty-acre farm which he purchased in Union township, their primitive little home consisting of a one-room cabin. He worked hard, improved his land, and in time acquired adjoining land, making a farm of one hundred twenty acres. To him and his wife were given three children: James, Burton and Irvin, all now married and comfortably settled in life. James, a farm of Lake County, Indiana, married Rosa Stegmeier and has one child, Irvin; Burton, a farm of Porter county, married Amy Beam and has two children, Esther and Ruth; Irvin who lives at the old homestead, married Anna Schaller, a daughter of August and Margaret Schallerf, and they have one child, Irene.

Politically Mr. Frame was a Republican, and his religiousus creed was tht of the Methodist Episcopal Church, both he and his wife having membership in the church at Wheeler. The only fraternal organization to which he belonged was the G.A.R. and during the latter years of his life he took great pleasure in attending reunions and meeting with his old comrades. His service in the Civil War was as a member of Company B, One Hundred and Fifty-first Regiment, into which he was mustered at LaPorte, Indiana, and which he went to Nashville, Tenn. His honorable discharge bears the date of 1865.

Mrs. Ann E. Frame, widow of Thomas J., dates her birth in 1845, and, like her worthy husband, is a native of Porter County, she being a daughter of James and Nancy Cadwell, pioneer farmers of this county. In the Cadwell family were six children: Orissa, Franklin, William, Luzerne, Newton and Ann E. Mrs. Frame still lives at the old home, where she is surrounded with the comforts of life, has a large circle of friends, and is happy in the companionship of her children and grandchildren.

The history of both the Frame and Cadwell families in Porter county dates back to the time when the Indians were plentiful in northern Indiana. Grandfather Frame's farm which he pre-empted from the government, was crossed by one of the old Indian trails, and not long after his settlement here 500 Indians camped on his land. Some times the Indians came up to the settler's cabins, peeped into the windows and frightened the women and children, but the red men never did serious harm to any of the whites in this locality.

IV. Margaret[4] Frame b 1814 in Kentucky m _____ McCoy. She was 36 years' old when the 1850 census was made in Porter County. Her husband was not listed so she was widowed before that time. Children:

1. John[5] McCoy b 1831 in Ohio. Listed as 19 years of age in the 1850 Census. He went to Oregon City with Presley Warnock in 1853.
2. Jeremiah[5] McCoy b _____ Ohio.
3. William[5] McCoy b 1837 in Indiana. He was listed as 13 years' old in the 1850 census.
4. Weeden[5] McCoy b 1837 in Indiana. Listed as 13 years' old in the 1850 census. He went to Oregon City with Presley Warnock in 1853.
5. Francis[5] McCoy b 1839 in Indiana. He was listed as 11 years' old in the 1850 census.
6. George W. T.[5] McCoy b 1841 in Indiana. He was listed as 9 years of age in the 1850 census.
7. Alice or Alvin[5] McCoy b 1844m Indiana. He or she was listed as 6 years' old in the 1850 Census. One other son went to Oregon City with Presley Warnock. The McCoys went on down into California and settled at Red Bluff.

V. Rachel[4] Frame (William[3], Jeremiah[2], William[1] Frame) was born August 19, 1815, and married Presley Warnock March 29, 1832; and died sometime between May 7, 1843, when her youngest child was born and April 9, 1846, when Presley Warnock married Dorotha Davis in Porter County, Indiana.* Rachel Frame Warnock is buried in the same family cemetery as her parents. Her gravestone was missing in October 1934 when the cemetery was visited by her Great Granddaughter, Rachel Rolfe Feighny. The 1850 U. S. Census does not list Dorotha in the family of Presley Warnock. A tradition in the Frame Family in Indiana is that Presley found his wife mistreating his children, so he made a proper settlement on her and they separated. This is supposed to have been the reason he left Indiana and went to Oregon. There is no divorce record in Porter County, Indiana. He sold the last of his land in Indiana in July, 1853, and he and all of his children went to Oregon.

John McCoy, 22, and Weedon McCoy, 16, and one other McCoy boy went with the Warnock Family to Oregon. They were the sons of Margaret Frame McCoy, Rachel's sister who married a McCoy. In the 1850 Census, Margaret is listed but her husband's name does not appear, indicating that she was probably a widow at that time.

It is believed by the family of Elizabeth Jane[5] Warnock that Rachel died at the birth of her youngest child, or shortly thereafter. Elizabeth Jane Warnock told her children and grandchilden that her two aunts, Margaret and Elizabeth helped her father with his motherless brood. She told about the lovely pewter these aunts owned. Unless a newspaper write-up or a church record can be found there is probably no way of proving the date of death for Rachel[4] Frame Warnock.

* p 2 May-June 1961 The Hoosier Genealogist, pub. by Genealogical Section of the Indiana Historical Society, 140 N. Senate Ave/. Indianapolis, 4, Indiana.

No record of Rachel's marriage has been found but Rachel and Presley Warnock were probably married in Ohio, as the Frames were listed as tax payers in Ohio in 1824 and did not go to Indiana until 1834. Presley Warnock was born December 7, 1810, in Bourbon County, Kentucky.

According to Porter County History, Westchester Township was the first settlement in Porter County, Indiana, and Presley Warnock came there with his wife and her relation in 1834 from Ohio. Porter County Recorder's Office reveals in Deed Record A, page 200 that Presley Warnock and Rachel Warnock, wife sold to Alexis Bailey of Baileytown 88 acres in N. W. Section 34, Twp. 37, Range 6, dated February 24, 1837, in Westchester Township. Warnock had received it by patent from the Government June 9, 1834. Baileytown was platted by Joseph Bailey but it never became a town. It was the first white settlement in Porter County and was located about three or four miles from the southern boundary of Lake Michigan and perhaps a mile from Dunes State Park. Joseph Bailey was the only white settler in what is now Westchester Township for almost ten years. In 1833 the Jesse Morgan Family came and in 1834 William Thomas and Presley Warnock and their families came.

In 1840 when the Census was taken in Indiana, Presley was living in Lake County. He was 30 years' old and Rachel 25. Margaret was 6 years, William M. was 3, and Elizabeth Jane was born on August 3, 1840 (Lake County was made from Porter County in 1837). The Court House at Valparaiso, Indiana, in the Record of Deeds Pages 485-6 V.G. shows that Presley Warnock on May 13, 1846, bought from George and Elizabeth DeVoe for $100.00 the N. E. Quarter of the S.W. Quarter Section 10 in Township 34 North of Range No. 7, West containing 40 acres. The deed covering the sale of this same land by Presley Warnock was found on Page 486. On Page 270 of Deed Record "G" is a deed covering the sale of the SouthWest Quarter of the N. E. Quarter of Sec. No. 3 in Township No. 34, North Range No. 7 West by Presley Warnock on March 8, 1853, to William Atwell for $266.00.

"See Oregon Terr. Certif." #3283 which shows Presley Warnock was given in Section 30 and 31 in township #38, Range 4E 160.50 acres. The Certificate was thru" the Oregon City land office. It was patented to Presley's heirs on May 5, 1873. Neither the Washington, D.C., or Oregon offices show anything else excepting the date of birth of 1810.

Presley Warnock and his motherless children and the McCoys arrived in Oregon September 25, 1853, after a hard trip. The party traveled by day and at night the wagons were gathered in a circle with the horses and cattle on the inside. Not a great deal is known about this journey over the Old Barlow Road, or Oregon Trail, but Elizabeth Jane Warnock was such a beautiful girl that they were afraid the Indians might kidnap her. In fact, one young Indian brave followed the caravan for days. On the whole the Indians proved friendly. When the caravan reached the Snake River, the horses and cattle ate some poinon weed and died and Presley Warnock and his family were forced to journey across the vast expanse of Oregon Territory with one horse and one ox.

Jack Folsom, Pendleton, Oregon, Grandson of Margaret Ann Warnock and John Edward Folsom, states that his Grandmother told him that they crossed the Snake River at Emigrant Gap near American Falls, Idaho. There were high banks on both sides of the river, slow water, a beach of sand and gravel. They calked the wagon beds and used them as boats and they went back and forth many times with their supplies, the women and children and the cattle. Some of the cattle couldn't swim and the men had to go along with them and grab them by the horns, raising the heads out of the water so the cattle could breathe. The ox was a wonderful swimmer so he was used to bring the cattle across. The cattle would be tied to him or his tail. The ox received special care and attention for his services in making the crossing.

The Warnocks settled at Oregon City and there Margaret and Elizabeth Jane became aquainted with John and Moses Folsom. They were married in a double ceremony on May 6, 1855, performed by Joseph N. Prescott, Justice of the Peace of Blackamas County in the Oregon Territory. (See the Twenty-Second Annual Reunion Report of the Folsom Family Association, August 23, 1933, for additional information regarding the early days of the Warnocks and Folsoms in Oregon.) Presley died March 30, 1868, at Clackamas County, Oregon. Children born to Rachel (Frame) and Presley Warnock:

1. Margaret Ann[5] Warnock born January 9, 1833, in Indiana. The 1850 Census gives her age as 16 and she is listed in the 1840 Census in Lake County as being 5-10 years of age. It would be possible that she was born in 1834 instead of 1833. She died May 20, 1930, in Oregon. She married John Edward[7] Folsom (Peter[6], John[5], Peter[4], John[3], Lt. Peter[2], John[1] Folsom) May 6, 1855, at Oregon City, Oregon, in a double wedding ceremony with her sister Elizabeth Jane Warnock and Moses Emerson Folsom, brother of John Edward[7] Folsom. John Edward Folsom was born May 19, 1824, at Maxfield, Maine, and died May 24, 1897 at Chelewah, Washington. They had nine sons. (See Folsom Family Association Reports and the two-volume Folsom Genealogy by Mrs. Elizabeth K. Folsom, pub. Tuttle Pub. Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont, 1938.) This family lived in Clackamas County, Oregon, until about 1880 when they moved to Eastern Washington.
2. William Mason[5] Warnock was born October 4, 1835, in Indiana. The 1850 Census lists his age as 13 years which would figure 1837 as the year of his birth. In the 1840 Census he was listed as under 5 years of age. He married December 21, 1862, at Oregon City, Pernecia Hughes, 1842-1918 daughter of Samuel and Faith Hughes. The Reverand C. F. Beatie performed the ceremony. William Mason died in 1922. Children:

vii. Margaret Ethel[6] Warnock died December 28, 1879, aged one year, eleven months (1878) buried Springwater Cemetery with her sister Frances Faith[6] Warnock and her brother Willian J.[6] Warnock.

3. Elizabeth Jane[5] Warnock, third child of Presley Warnock and Rachel[4] Frame Warnock, was born August 3, 1840, in Porter County, Indiana. As is the case with her brother and sisters, there is some doubt as to the actual birth dates and this is probably due to the fact that the mother, Rachel[4] Frame Warnock died soon after the birth of her youngest child. The family records give 1838 as the birth year but Elizabeth Jane is listed in the 1850 Census as being 10 years of age and in the 1840 census (with her Mother still living) she is listed as being under five years of age. The two youngest children, girls, were not listed as they were born after 1840. Also, Georgie[6] Folsom, her daughter and the mother of Rachel Rolfe Feighny[7], the compiler of this material, stated that Elizabeth Jane[5] Warnock was 13 years' old when the family journed by covered wagon from Indiana to Oregon in 1853. She died December 17, 1927, at Beaumont, California, and is bured at Pendleton, Oregon. She married Moses Emerson Folsom[7] (Peter[6], John[5], Peter[4], John[3], Lt. Peter[2], John[1] Folsom) at Oregon City May 6, 1855, in a double ceremony with her sister Margaret and John Edward Folson[7], brother of Moses. She wore a white dress and a rose in her hair. Moses was born ca 1827 in East Corinth, Maine, and died December 29, 1899, at Pendleton, Oregon. They had seven girls and four boys. (See Folsom Family Association Reports and the two-volume Folsom Genealogy by Mrs. Elizabeth K. Folsom, pub. Tuttle Pub. Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont, 1938.)

4. Drucilla[5] Warnock, fourth child of Presley and Rachel Frame[4] Warnock was born, according to Oregon records on September 27, 1841, in Indiana. The 1850 Census lists her as being 8 years' old which would make the birthdate about 1842. Family records list her birth year as 1840 which is probably/not correct. Shedied on October 7, 1925, at Gladstone, Oregon, and is buried at Mountain View Cemetery, at Oreon City. She married January 20, 1860, James Monroe Tracy at Eagle Creek, Oregon. He was born February 25, 1841, in Jefferson County, New York. He died January 10, 1925 at Gladstone, Oregon. He went to Oregon in 1852 from Iowa. He settled in Douglas County, Oregon, on the Tracy Donation Land Claim which is still in the family (1966). James Monroe Tracy was the son of Caleb Ensign Tracy (1817-1897) and Lydia Minor; grandson of Caleb Ensign, Sr., Ellisburg, New York, and Jefferson County near Lake Ontario - Revolutionary War soldier.

"Younger Frame, son of John and Ufa (Peck) Frame was born in Preble Co., Ohio Jan. 1, 1832, his father was born in Ky. in 1804 and came to Preble County when quite young; his mother was born in Ohio in 1810 and lived there till after her marriage. In 1835 they emigrated to Mich. City, Ind., LaPorte Co. where Mr. Frame followed the coopering business. In 1849 they came to Porter Co., settling in Pine twp. when his mother died Dec. 29, 1860, and his father Feb. 29, 1872. Younger Frame lived with his parents until twenty-nine years old. After receiving an ordinary school education, he learned his father's trade, but has worked much more at farming, having now 212 acres in this and LaPorte Co. On Feb. 28, 1861, he was married to Maria L. Weston, dau. of Isaac and Louisa (Randall) Weston, born March 7, 1839; her parents were early settlers of LaPorte Co. They have had three children--Hattie, Cary J. and Chauncey B. During 1881-2 Mr. Frame built a cheese factory, the only one in the twp. When he first came hither, his farm was a wilderness, necessitating clearing and the building of a log cabin; he has now good improvements and seventy-five acres under cultivation. Mr. Frame is a Democrat, but liberal in local government."

pages 838--9 "Younger Frame. The agricultural community of Pine township, Porter County, Indiana, includes among its oldest and most respected families that of Younger Frame, who is located on section thirty-six, the farm containing one hundred and eleven acres of fine land. The Frame family was originally from Kentucky, in which state Younger's grandparents, William and Elizabeth Frame, were born.

"Younger Frame is a native of Preble County, Ohio, where he was born January 1, 1832, the son of John Frame, born in 1804, and Eupha (Peck) Frame, born in 1810. The senior Frame removed with his family to Michigan City in 1835 and remained a resident of that place until 1849, when he located in Pine township, Porter county. He was a man of fine character and exemplary habits, a devout member of the Baptist Church and a leader in its activities, and was also a valued member of the Independent Order of OddmFellows.

"Younger Frame was a member of nine children, a few of whom survive at this writing. His oldest brother, Francis P., deceased, was a veteran of the Civil War; his sister Nancy, deceased, was the wife of Ethan Stephens; Lucinda, who married George Shaner, and a brother, John, deceased. The next brother, William, married Mary Anderson and lives in Chicago. Martin, deceased, a soldier in the Civil War, married Elizabeth Goodwin, and Edwin, deceased, was married to Anna Pratt.

"A good common school education was acquired by Younger Frame in the schools of Michigan City, and when at the age of seventeen he went with the family to Porter county, Indiana, he at once put his shoulder to the wheel and became his father's able assistant in agricultural activities on the home farm, continuing to be a member of the parental household for twelve years thereafter. He was faithful, thrifty and industrious, and when his decision was made to establish an independent home of his own he was in good financial condition to make a fine start.

"His marriage to Maria L. Weston occurred February 28, 1861. Mrs. Frame is the daughter of Isaac Weston and Louisa (Randall) Weston. Her father, who was originally from Mass., later became a resident of Ohio, and in Butler county of that state married Louisa Randell, who was born and reared in Virginia, but resided at Hamilton, Ohio, at the time of her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Weston settled in LaPorte county, Indiana, in 1832, took up a tract of Government land, cleared and improved it and continued to make that place their home the remainder of their lives. Mr. Weston was the first postmaster of Otis, then known as Salem Crossing, and also enjoyed the distinction of having built the first hotel at that point. Of the four children of his family Cary fought in the Civil War as a member of the Seventy-third Indiana Volunteers and was a martyr to the cause in the Battle at Stone River; Ann J. became the wife of S. C. Hackett; Mary is the widow of John Wolford; while Maria L., as previously stated, is the wife of Younger Frame. Mrs. Frame owns a hundred acre-parcel of land in LaPorte county. She is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at Burdick and is a woman of fine character, and hospitable instincts.

"Mr. and Mrs. Frame are the parents of threechildren, Hattie is now the wife of Charles Leets, of LaPorte county, Indiana. Cary is married to Elizabeth Paxton, of Michigan City; and Chauncey B. chose Pauline Sackman as his wife. Mr. Frame takes a prominent part in township official life and has had the honor of filling the office of township assessor, discharging his duties in a highly creditable manner in that capacity. His politcal tendencies are toward the Democratic party, in the principle of which he is a hearty believer and a strong advocate. Mr. and Mrs. Frame are esteemed as mong the most liberal and substantial members of the community in which they reside and enjoy the sincere friendship of a large numer of people who appreciate their many fine personal qualities."

John[3] Frame (Jeremiah[2], William[1] Frame) son of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (McGill) Frame was born ~~February~~ February 18, 1784. He married November 14, 1815, Polly HORN BAKER. Polly was living with her son William when the 1850 Census was made. She was listed as Mary Frame, aged 56 years, born in Kentucky.

Silas[3] Frame (Jeremiah[2], William[1] Frame) was the youngest son of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (McGill) Frame. He was born February 11, 1801, in Kentucky and died October 2, 1864. # The 1850 Census lists his age as 49, his occupation as farmer and his worth as $4,000. * He m 1st September 27, 1821, Polly Strader who died December 30, 1840, and is buried in the Frame Cemetery.¢. He married 2nd Welthy UNDEWOOD January 10, 1842. The 1850 Census states that Wealthy was 35 years of age and that she was born in Kentucky. He died October 2, 1864 (given as 1869 in Craig's work.)% There were nine children born to Silas and Polly.@

I. Jacob[4] Frame is probably the son of Silas and Polly Frame inasmuch as he was living next door to them when the 1850 Census was made. Jacob was 25 years' old and was born in Ohio. His wife was listed as "Marolda (?)", aged 21 born in Ohio. Children in the 1850 Census born in Ohio:

Dear Miss Rolfe,

I have before me, your letter to J. B. Frame of Valparaiso, Indiana. I will say that I will be very glad to give you any facts that will help you in your search for family history. But my help will be limited, as the older members of the family have all passed on, and anything that I might tell you will have to be from memory.

However, this Rachel Frame, your great-grandmother, was a sister of Elizabeth Frame Campbell, Peggie Frame McCoy, Newton, John and William Frame. The latter is my grandfather. That means that the said Rachel Frame was my father's aunt. I had an uncle Presley Frame named after Uncle Presley Warnock. So you are listening to a relative you never heard of before.

I well remember hearing my father, Thomas Frame, tell how Uncle Presley Warnock left here. By the way, if you were here, I could show you the place where he lived. When he went west, he didn't go in an auto, but he went in the old prairie schooner. He yoked up his cows to the schooner and milked them on the way. Now then, little girl, in conclusion will say that we hold a family reunion each year on Labor Day. If you could only plan to come you could at least meet the younger generation and get many pointers that I could not give you just now, but will try to find something to help you in your search.

Please let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

James A. Frame.
